Applied Anthropologist and Public Servant: The Life and Work of Philleo Nash

Ruth H. Landman and Katherine Spencer Halpern, eds.

National Association for the Practice of Anthropology
A Unit of the American Anthropological Association
Applied Anthropologist and Public Servant: The Life and Work of Philleo Nash

Ruth H. Landman and Katherine Spencer Halpern, eds.

National Association for the Practice of Anthropology
A Unit of the American Anthropological Association
NAPA Bulletins are occasional publications of the National Association for the Practice of Anthropology, a Unit of the American Anthropological Association.

Ralph J. Bishop and Pamela Amoss
General Editors

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Applied anthropologist and public servant.

(NAPA bulletin ; 7)
Bibliography: p.
ISBN 0-913167-28-0 (pbk.)

Copyright © 1989 by the American Anthropological Association
All rights reserved.

ISBN 0-913167-28-0
Contents

Preface
   Ruth H. Landman and Katherine Spencer Halpern ........................................... v
Introduction
   Ralph J. Bishop ..................................................................................................... 1
Anthropologist in the White House
   Philleo Nash ........................................................................................................ 3
Philleo Nash: The Education of an Applied Anthropologist
   Fred Eggan ........................................................................................................... 7
Philleo Nash: Anthropologist as Administrator
   James E. Officer ................................................................................................... 11
Philleo Nash and American Indian People
   Nancy Oestreich Lurie ......................................................................................... 16
Celebrating Philleo's Life
   Ada Deer .............................................................................................................. 21
Philleo Nash's Contributions to Anthropology and Beyond at American University
   Ruth Landman ...................................................................................................... 26
Philleo Nash: Model Applied Anthropologist and Public Servant
   Pearl Walker-McNeil ............................................................................................. 29
Philleo Nash and Georgetown Day School
   Edith Rosenfels Nash .......................................................................................... 32
References Cited ..................................................................................................... 41
About the Authors ................................................................................................. 42
Appendix 1: Archival Materials ............................................................................. 43
Appendix 2 ............................................................................................................. 44
Philieo Nash, 1909–1987